OTBEEZY

RAPPER, SINGER, WRITER

From the heartland of Indiana, OT Beezy brings a fresh sound that defies categorization: this uniquely American blend of Midwestern perspective with West Coast and Southern modern influence that bends genres. His music captivates audiences with his diversity in topics and sounds. This diversity is due to his many musical talents outside of rapping, including writing and singing.

Despite being born in Dearborn County, Indiana, OT Beezy found himself often in Cincinnati, Ohio. Experience in the city would expose him to a melting pot of influences, shaping his musical tastes and contributing to his blended style that sets him apart as an artist.

His early childhood would mold a young man with unlimited potential and prospects, as Beezy would often be in training facilities for his promising Motocross career, learning dedication and discipline early on.

In 2019, OT Beezy's life took a drastic turn when he was imprisoned for four years due to Indiana's harsh penalties for marijuana. He would spend 2019 and COVID in prison, completing his sentence in 2023. This unexpected experience transformed him from an aspiring name in motocross to an unfairly labeled "con." and his opportunities stunted. Despite this, OT Beezy used his time behind bars, and the nickname given to him, to further refine his musical talents and channel his experiences into his art.

BU$Y SEASON Shows

Upon his release in 2023, OT Beezy emerged stronger and more determined than ever to pursue his passion for music. His debut singles and EP caught the attention of both emerging and respected artists like OhGeesy, 03 Greedo, Roadrunner tb, Montana 300, nef the Pharoah, lil Pete, 310babii, Fenix Flexin, Shawneff, Db BoutaBag, and Lil Kayla.

Being the opening act for these artists, - emerging, established, and across various genres and locales - proves that his musical talent resonates with listeners beyond the midwest, earning him a dedicated fan base that grows with each release.

OUTTA TOWN... Coast to Coast

In March 2024, OT Beezy shared the stage with Shoreline Mafia member and solo artist, OhGeesy, 310babii, and more. He delivered an energizing performance, merging their fan bases. But the momentum didn't stop there: he would fly to California two more times before the end of Spring.

On April 5th, OT Beezy took the stage alongside the legendary 03 Greedo, turning up the heat with a show-stopping performance that had Californian fans on their feet. From the moment he stepped into the spotlight, OT Beezy commanded the stage with an unmatched energy, leaving an indelible mark on the audience.

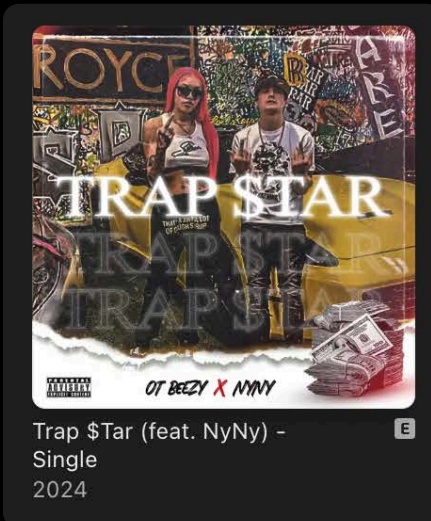

Performing from coast to coast, OT Beezy holds his own alongside industry giants. With each performance, he continues to solidify his place in the music scene.
